MANRESA

"David Kinch is such a brilliant chef, he has his own garden, and basically it's vegetables and seafood. There is very little meat. You just taste purity and honesty, he is really creative, but he's mature enough not to let that get the best of him. There is some playfulness throughout the meal, just enough to not make it boring. It's just ridiculously delicious."

- Chef Sean Brock (Husk, McCrady's, Charleston)

Los Gatos / Contemporary America
