LAZIZ

"Super delicious, strip mall Pakistani place. The flavors are really focused and not dumbed down for anybody. Fiery pungent and fricking delicious. They are genius and the chefs are totally on site. It's a family run place."

MARITANA GRILLE

"The Maritana Grille at the Don Cesar Hotel. Chef Eric Neri does a great job of blending elements of traditional continental cooking with modern twists. As far as the ambiance and scenery, you can't get more Florida than dining in a hotel on the beach."

LA CASA SIERRA

"It's a small Cuban restaurant run by a family that makes you feel right at home. The food is simple, with a rotating daily menu served from a steam table buffet. Everything is great, particularly the oxtail, but it's the atmosphere and welcome by the mother and father that keep me going back."
